Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. B. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1892.

We are authorized to announce
W. T. OWEN,

As a candidate for Circuit Judge in this Judicial District, composed of the counties of Daviess, McLean, Ohio and Hancock, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
Of Indiana.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WHITE-LAW REID,
Of New York.

FOR CONGRESS
C. M. BARNETT,
Of Ohio County.

FOR SHERIFF,
CLAYTON L. WOODWARD.
FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
SEPTIMUS T. STEVENS.

The big switchmen's strike at Buffalo is at an end.

The Union Sunday School Convocation met at Princeton this week. Several delegates in attendance from our county.

The success of the Republican party means high wages and prosperity; the success of the Democratic party means low wages and poverty.

The Commercial says:

"In cleaning up after the Legislature adjourned last week, Governor Brown found a little small change left in the Treasury by mistake and he hastily called them together again. It is needless to add they met yesterday."

JUDGE W. T. OWEN, whose announcement as a candidate for Circuit Judge we publish this week, has very bad politics, it is true, but nevertheless is a polished gentleman, a ripe scholar and an able lawyer and is eminently qualified to fill the place to which he aspires.

The Herald seems to be greatly agitated because our Representative, Hon. Wesley Crowe, a Democrat elected by the People's Party, is not making a better record. We can only explain his action by saying it is the same old story of "Democratic incompetency," or a willingness to do nothing and rob the people by drawing a salary of $5,000 a day for doing nothing. We can't see why the Herald should kick, Uncle Wes is merely keeping up the do nothing policy of the Democratic Representatives, who preceded him.

THE Democracy is attempting to dodge the real issue in the campaign, which is the fight between Protection and Free Trade. They are afraid of their platform on this question and afraid of the people, hence their attempt to dodge. They are in favor of Free Trade but their leaders are aware that the people will resent a fight against their industrial system and turn their enemies under an avalanche of intelligent ballots. But the people should remember that though the Democracy is making the fight on the Force Bill scare-crow, their real enemy is directed toward Protection and the prosperity which it has fostered.

It is now time for the Republicans of the Sixth Judicial District to choose candidates for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. There is no reason whatever that the Democracy should have a walk-over and they must not have. We have numbers of good men well qualified for the places and they can win. Ohio county, in the person of E. P. Neal, can furnish a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, who is not only a match, but a little more than a match for the Democratic nominee, whoever he may be, whether Mr. Row or Mr. Taylor, and who, if elected, would make an excellent Attorney. We believe the candidacy of Mr. Neal will meet the approbation of the Republicans in every county in the District. Let one of the other counties furnish the timber for a Circuit Judge, as they are abundantly able to do, and we can go into the fight with good prospects of coming out victorious.

The Herald man must be just about out of something to write when he attempts to throw the responsibility of the present condition of things in Kentucky upon the Republican party and the new Constitution. The whole secret lies in Democratic incompetency to manage the affairs of this great State. Look at our Treasury, practically empty and the State in debt as deep as she can go; taxes high and a Democratic Legislature after wasting hundreds of thousand of dollars of the people's money, failing to pass legally, according to Gov. Brown's opinion, scarcely any bill whatever; the Governor convening the Legislature after its disgraceful session, in order to insure, if possible, the legality of the bills which this Democratic menagerie ought to have passed long ago. And for this disgraceful and disgusting state of affairs the Democratic party and nobody else is responsible. Down with Democratic misrule and mismanagement.

It is a Protective Tariff is the worst thing for this country, why is England so interested in having us adopt Free Trade? Was England ever known to befriend us? Never. That she is against Protection in this country is prima facie evidence that Protection is best for us. England is not a humanitarian and never was, and the fact that she takes such pains to send literature and gold to this country to carry elections for the Democratic party and against Protection is conclusive proof that she expects commercial advantage in return. She expects the destruction of our industries and our dependence on her. Gentle reader, remember the shoutings of praise that followed Cleveland's Free Trade Message, and the passage by the House of the Mills' Bill. England went wild with exultation and remember the howls that went up when the McKinley Bill was passed. Do you not know that England has a selfish and moneyed interest in our industrial and commercial downfall? Every intelligent man knows it. How can a man aware of these things, who loves his country better than all the world besides, we repeat, how can a man who knows these things, vote the Democratic ticket?

Republican Convention in Breckinridge.

Pursuant to call the Republicans of Breckinridge county met at the Court House August the 20th, to nominate county officers. Jonas D. Wilson, of Cloverport, was chosen Chairman and Jesse R. Eskridge, Secretary. Messrs. G. P. Jolly, V. B. Burton and H. L. Morton were appointed a committee on resolutions. The following were presented and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That we heartily endorse the able and patriotic Administration did resume, every prominent Democrat unbended himself and howled "it can't be done." But it was done, just as gold was the other day paid for those Treasury notes presented at the sub-treasury in New York. The question for every intelligent voter to ask himself is: Should the party which has repeatedly attempted to injure the financial system of the country and to precipitate a panic be trusted to control the country?

As an evidence of the beneficial results brought about by the McKinley bill, we call the attention of our readers to the following from the Rochester Clothing Gazette:

"William Roberts, a woolen manufacturer from Bradford, England, has just completed a large mill in Bergen county, N. J., opposite Passaic. It will employ 150 hands. The mill and a long row of cottages for operatives has been built under his direction, and improved looms and other machines for the manufacture of the finest goods are being built. Mr. Roberts formerly did a large business with the United States, all his goods being placed directly on the market here. After the passage of the McKinley bill he arranged to transport his entire plant."

"Two other English factories will be brought here in the same way. Henry Lister and sons of Yorkshire, England, will immediately remove their extensive textile industry to Jamestown, N. Y. One hundred acres of ground have been bought and the erection of the factory will begin. Over 2,000 hands will be employed. The removal is said to be due to the McKinley law, which practically shut out the firm's product from the American market."

"Within the last month representatives of four large woolen houses in England have been in New Jersey looking for land on which to locate their plants. One of their representatives said that the report that several large plants were about to locate in South Jersey was authentic, and that worsted manufacturers in Yorkshire, England, intended to come to this country within a short time. They will build here and employ American hands, as the tariff has stopped their imports."

Grayson Republicans.

August 23.—We, the Republicans of Caneyville Precinct, met pursuant to a call made by J. B. Rogers, Secretary of the Grayson county Republican Committee, Saturday, August the 20th, at Caneyville for the purpose of organizing a Harrison and Reid Club. The meeting was called to order by J. B. Rogers, who stated the object of the meeting. J. J. Ferry was made Temporary Chairman and M. A. Taylor, Secretary.

Administration of President Harrison. RESOLVED, That we condemn the Separate Coach Bill, as passed by the Legislature of Kentucky, and further that we again reaffirm our fealty to the principles of the Republican party as set forth in the Minneapolis platform and pledge it our hearty support.

J. B. ROGERS, } Com.
JNO. R. BOND, } Com.
THOS. FERRY, } Com.

The Club then proceeded to elect officers, which resulted as follows: President, J. B. Rogers; Vice-President, J. J. Ferry; Secretary, John R. Bond; Treasurer, M. A. Taylor. The Committee on flags were Jno. R. Bond, V. R. Daekery, James W. House, J. B. Rogers and M. A. Taylor. It was moved and carried that the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Hartford Republican and Grayson County Gazette for publication.

There were fifty names enrolled at this meeting, with good prospects for several more soon. On motion it was agreed that we adjourn to meet next Saturday, August 27, in Caneyville at Bond's store.

J. J. FERRY, Ch'm'n.
M. A. TAYLOR, Sec'y.

Republican Convention in Breckinridge.

Pursuant to call the Republicans of Breckinridge county met at the Court House August the 20th, to nominate county officers. Jonas D. Wilson, of Cloverport, was chosen Chairman and Jesse R. Eskridge, Secretary.

Messrs. G. P. Jolly, V. B. Burton and H. L. Morton were appointed a committee on resolutions. The following were presented and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That we heartily endorse the able and patriotic Administration did resume, every prominent Democrat unbended himself and howled "it can't be done." But it was done, just as gold was the other day paid for those Treasury notes presented at the sub-treasury in New York.

The following were presented and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That we condemn the Democratic party for their efforts to stir up labor against capital, and assert our firm belief that labor and capital must be united with the strong band of sympathy.

RESOLVED, That we call the attention of the tax payers of the country to the fact that the present Democratic Congress has spent in the first half of its session, $44,000,000 more than the so called billion dollar Congress did in the first half of its session.

RESOLVED, That we further call attention to the utter incompetency of the Democratic party to administer public affairs in the State of Kentucky.

The Legislature has spent $231,000 of the public money and the Governor has vetoed every important measure it has passed.

At the conclusion of the reading of the resolutions and some pointed remarks by Mr. Burton, the Chairman of the meeting, announced that nominations were in order. W. S. Ball was nominated for Circuit Court Clerk and was unanimously chosen as the standard bearer of the party.

Mr. Ball is a young man hardly past his majority, but is well qualified to fill the office.

No nomination was made for Sheriff. The Convention then adjourned. It was well attended by representative Republicans. Ronx Hoob.

Club Meeting.

The E. C. Hubbard Club met at Cromwell Saturday night, August 13. Hon. E. D. Guffy, of Hartford, was present and delivered a very forcible speech. Mr. Guffy is one of the ablest Republicans in the county, and his arraignment of the enemies of Republicanism was highly enjoyed by the club. We hope to have him with us again.

Our next meeting is at Bald Knob Church Saturday night, August 27th. Col. J. S. R. Wedding will be present and deliver a speech. All are invited to attend, whether Republicans, Democrats or Third Party men, and a grand time is expected.

S. T. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

W. B. Miller, of Owensboro, is visiting his parents.

Miss Etta Robinson is visiting at Rockport this week. Miss Ina Barrett has returned to her home at Liberty, after a two week's visit to her sister, Mrs. Henry Taylor. Lonnie Williams and wife have returned to their home in Central City, after a short visit to his parents of this place.

Watermelon stealing is all the go now. Boys, you had better go slow, you might get in the wrong patch.

On the morning of August 17th, a crowd of friends and neighbors began to gather in at the residence of Mr. J. F. Wallace, and at 1 o'clock, Mr. Mayworth Barnard led to the hymeneal altar Miss Charlotte Wallace, where Rev. G. J. Bean pronounced the words that made two hearts beat as one. The attendants were: Monroe Barnard and Miss Ina Wallace, J. R. Williams and Miss Salie Howell, of Island.

They all are of good family and stand high in society.

After the ceremony the party accompanied by a host of friends started for the residence of Mr. Tom Williams, where Mr. W. C. Wallace, brother of the first named bride, and Miss Elton Williams were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. G. J. Bean officiating. After the wedding, both couples, accompanied by a large number of friends, repaired to the home of Mr. J. F. Wallace, where a beautiful supper awaited them. About 90 people partook of the repast. May their lives be full of happiness, is the wish of SLEEPY HEAD.

What Your Grandmother Did.

She hatched the flax and carded the wool, and wove the linen and spun the tow, and made the clothes for her husband and children ten. She made butter and cheese, and dipped tallow candles, to light the house at night, and she cooked all the food for her household by an open fire-place and a brick oven. Yes, and when she was forty years of age, she was already an old lady whose best days were over. Her shoulders were bent and her joints enlarged by hard work, and she wore spectacles and a cap. Her great-granddaughter, with all the modern conveniences for comfort refinement and luxury, may be as charming and as attractive at forty-five as at twenty. Especially is this true, if she preserves her health and beauty by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which wards off all female trouble and irregularities, cures them if they already exist, keeps the life current healthful and vigorous, and enables the woman of middle age to retain the freshness of girlhood upon brow and cheek, the light of youth in her eyes, and its elasticity in her step. Sold by all druggists.

HEMMED IN BY A PRAIRIE FIRE.

An Experience That Is Burned Into a Westerner's Memory.

"I had an experience in Nebraska in 1856 that I can see yet whenever I shut my eyes," said Major Tom Stephens. "I piloted a party of emigrants across the plains and was returning alone to the Missouri. It was a trifling risky, but my business was urgent, and I was so well mounted that I had little fear of Indians. It was in the latter part of September, and as there had been no rain for two months the tall grass was like so much tinder."

"One night I camped on a small tributary of the Middle Loup. It was a small, spring-fed rivulet, desolate of timber and almost hidden by the rank grass. I had not slept long when I was awakened by the neighing of my horse, and was horrified to find the prairie to the south was covered my horse put his foot in a hole, fell and broke a leg.

"The fire hemmed me in by a semi-circle and was coming on with terrible rapidity. The whole heavens seemed to be a sheet of roaring flame. I thought sure I was done for. I have heard that men brought face to face with death remember every evil deed of their lives, but I simply stood there in the dry grass and watched the sublime spectacle. I felt that my doom was sealed and deliberately waited for it. Suddenly a new danger confronted me. A vast herd of buffalo flying before the fire was bearing down upon me. I was to be trampled to death and cremated afterward! As the vast mass came thundering on I instinctively started and ran. Several deer went scurrying by me, and I fancied I could feel the hot breath of the herd of buffalo on the back of my neck. I was suddenly thrown into the air and landed lengthwise across the back of a big bull."

"I fastened my fingers in his shaggy coat and managed to bestride him, and thus mounted I was carried to the Loup river, where I was thrown off by the branch of a tree. I managed to swing to it, however, and thus saved myself from being trampled to death. The herd plunged across the shallow river, and I took refuge from the approaching flames in its muddy waters. Three days later I was picked up, more dead than alive, by an emigrant train. I spent, first and last, more than fifteen years on the plains and had many close calls, but that midnight ride on a buffalo's back, with the Loup river in front and the fires of Gehenna roaring in the rear, was, I think, as remarkable as any of the inventions of the yellow back lit-erati."

—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Serving a Subpoena.

An amusing little incident once occurred to me when calling upon a veterinary surgeon well known in the northeast district of London. I had to serve him with a subpoena summoning him to give evidence as a witness, and being reluctant to waste perhaps a whole day or even more upon the case, he refused to take it unless more "conduct money" were added. Of course I received my instructions, and merely laying the paper upon his person being "good service," round and round the table in his front sitting room we went, I endeavoring to place it upon him, he dodging backward to keep out of the way.

However, after a lengthy go-as-you-please race on a track that was, goodness only knows, how many laps to the mile, he suddenly burst out laughing at the oddity of the situation, and breathless with exertion accepted the subpoena.—London Tit-Bits.

One Kind of Praise.

"Do you know how one professional will express himself when he wants to say that another is a very poor artist?" said "an actor" to the Man About Town. "Say that a manager was to come to me and ask me about So-and-so's ability. He's a rattling good fellow, you know, and I wouldn't do him harm for the world, but he's a very bum actor. I'd say to the manager, 'He's a fine fellow and good to his mother.' That would fix him forever. Among our people no slur or deprecating language is half as expressive as that phrase, 'He's good to his mother.' Only thing that can be said in his favor, don't you see, and a little bit like, 'Yes, but he's a good hearted fellow, except that usage has made it infinitely more expressive.'—St. Louis Republic.

Scientifically treated by an author of wide reputation. Deafness eradicated and entirely cured, from 20 to 40 years standing, after all other methods have failed. A Story of the Autocrat.

When her lion was leaving, the hostess, who had put the cream of her acquaintance on parade and rather expected effusive admiration from the great man, said, with a confidential smile, "Well, Dr. Holmes. He answered in these four graphic words, 'It is giggle-gabble—gobble—and git!' This sentence will become historic.—Boston Home Journal.

Gathering Buckleberries.

Huckleberries are retailed by New York fruit dealers in small boxes and baskets, but the great blue huckleberries of the Delaware swamps still come to town in Yankee buckets, as the ordinary hooped and painted wooden bucket for domestic use is generally called south of Mason and Dixon's line. The swamp huckleberry bush grows to a height of eight or ten feet, and the berries are gathered by men, women and children, who enter the mosquito haunted swamps, spread sheets under the bushes and shake off the berries by the bushel. The Adirondack huckleberry bush grows to a height of from eight to eighteen inches, and the berries are gathered not by hand, but by the uproot.

A berry gatherer goes through the bushes, a cup in one hand and a larger vessel of some sort hung to his side. As he walks he whips his cup, mouth forward, about through the bushes, and quickly fills it with leaves and berries. As the leaves rise to the top they are taken off, when the cup fills and the berries are cast into the larger vessel. In this way camping parties gather many bushels of huckleberries in a single day.—New York Sun.
